

CDI 3* Copa el Camino

San Miguel Ameyalco, Mexico

Venue

The competition was held at Cuadra El Camino owned by Toni Camil, a great promoter of the sport in Mexico. The organization was done by Toni and Omar Zayrik.

The theme of the weekend was the Day of the Dead celebration. The arena was decorated with skeletons in every letter, as well as the typical cempasuchil flowers.

There was an altar in honor of dead horses and “catrinas” were walking around the show grounds.

Judge Panel

The judges at the show were:

- Maribel Alonso - 5* (Mex)
- Sandy Hotz – 4*(USA)
- Thomas Kessler – 4*(Ger)
- Sandra Smith – 4* (Arg)
- Omar Zayrik – 3* (Mex)
- Isabel Herbruger – 2* (Gua)

Young Horses 5yo

- The winner of both preliminary and final tests was Carolina Cordoba with De Pertinace, an Oldenburg stallion by Delatio x Relevant. In the final de judges awarded a 7.4 for trot, 8.3 for walk, 7.8 for canter, 7.7 for submission and 8.2 for perspective. Final result of 78.8%.

Small Tour

- Both the PSG and Inter I were won by Sol Montejano and Lenin Mor, a PRE stallion by Corsario IV. Sol is a 25 years old amateur rider and was the great revelation of this show. Lenin was ridden in Grand Prix by Juan Antonio Jimenez from Spain.

Medium Tour

- The Medium Tour was won by Rudy Jimenez, who is a rider from Costa Rica, the only foreign participant of the CDI. Rudy is the main rider of La Fortaleza, a prestigious Lusitano horse breeder. He rode the Lusitano stallion Jaleco (Violino SS x Trinco).

Big Tour

- The Grand Prix was won by Santiago Ortiz with the 11yo Lusitano stallion Gentil SS (Altivo SQT x Pagode). A second place for Enrique Palacios with Tinto, a KWPN stallion by Bodyguard. Third and fourth also for Santiago Ortiz.
- The Grand Prix Special was won by Santiago Ortiz with the 13yo Danish warmblood mare Bogha (Don Romantic x Milan).
- The Grand Prix Freestyle was won by Santiago Ortiz and Gentil SS. The kür had modern tango music.
